

Crossing the I's: Portland, OR November 29, 2016

| | | IACUC | IBC | IRB | Objective |
|-------------------|--|-----------------------------|------------------|---|--|
| 8.30am – 9.30am | The historical background to each of the major Institutional Review Committees | Sally Thompson-Iritani | Lorraine Pike | Charlotte Shupert | This session will provide an overview of what research committee members need to know about the laws and regulations governing research. Topics will include: determining what laws pertain; who enforces the laws and accredits facilities; what is the purpose and role of Institutional Research Committees; the roles of the various committee member. |
| 9.30am – 10.30am | The Current Protocol Review Process | Greg Timmel | Sarah Byers | Elizabeth Haney | During this session, faculty will cover the aspects a committee needs to consider as part of the review process, including: understanding why the research is being done; what will be done as part of the research; the intersections with other committees; the roles of committee members; and formal protocol review processes. |
| 10.30am – 11.00am | Break | | | | |
| 11.00am - Noon | Facility reviews and Site Visits | Odessa Reilly | Debra Brickey | Mark McNamara | This session will introduce committee members to all aspects of facility reviews and site visits; and ensuring that procedures are being undertaken as described in protocols |
| Noon – 1pm | Lunch | | | | |
| 1pm | Regulatory Updates | Ken Gordon | Same | Same | During this session, faculty will provide information on all compliance updates and potential regulatory changes. Participants will receive an up-to-date summary of all regulations and the laws that impact their processes. |
| 1.30pm – 2.30pm | How do we talk about our work | Ken Gordon/ Diana Gordon | Same | Same | This session will provide participants with tools and resources to enable them to communicate about their work to the public, non-defensively, and in a manner that builds support for ethically conducted research. |
| 2.30pm – 3.00pm | Break (Facilitated discussion) | | | | |
| 3.00pm – 4.00pm | Emerging Trends/ Local Issues and achieving compliance with the letter and the spirit of the law | Dr. Drew Martin | Harjinder Sardar | Paul Newton Darlene Kitterman will also potentially be available | This session will provide participants with a summary of emerging, technical and local issues that they will need to be aware of and prepare for in each of their institutional committees. |